The author of the above work was a theologician and belonged to the Society of Jesus . He was the first leading Missionary to arrive at Tamil Nad and at Madurai in particular, in the 17th Century. He demonstrated his greatmess by overcoming many unsurmountable difficulties Life, and determinedly lived like a Brahmin. He managed to put up with the difficulties and contradictious erising from this sort of Life. By his writings, by settings himself as an example and preaching the Doctrine, he founded the Madura Mission and Propagated the Faith. Among other numbrous works, he wrote this " Roman Catechinsm " in four parts, of which only the I and III parts are in the Library bearing the above two numbers.

This plate records of Gifts made in 1694 A.D. and 1696 A.D. by one Thiruvambala Nalla Thembi Azhagappan in favour of one Thandava Thambiran, son of some Nagalinga Thambiran. And it also records in addition, a Gift made in 1699 A.D. by one Kilinji Kuppam Neddiyar for the Charities of one Puducheri Thiruvambala Neelankarai Nainer Mandapam.

The Tamil Characters used in this plate are mostly similar to those of out own writings today.

This Plate was given to this Library by one Madna Goschler.

10. Prose.
11. This catalogue was prepared during 1866-67. Titles of texts are given in Tamil and French. First 49 sheets are in printed form and the rest are handwritten, The Catalogue contains a few more data about each manuscript than shown in the printed catalogue of 1912. Certain useful data prepared by the author with great pains have been ommitted in the printed catalogue.

At the end there are only 14 sheets Describing the Telugu Manuscripts of the Library.
